Location: DPS Central Maintenance Yard, 29900 Goddard Rd, Romulus, MI

Q: Why did I receive a notice in the mail?

A: You received a notice because changes are being made to the boundaries of the drainage district where your property is located, so that any property that benefits from the drain is included in the drainage district.

Q: Why did I receive more than one notice in my envelope?

A: Your property is included in more than one drainage district.

Q: What happens on the Day of Review of District Boundaries?

A: This hearing revises and updates the Drainage District boundaries to more accurately define the lands that are benefited by the drain. Property owners will have an opportunity to talk to the drain staff to ensure that their property is correctly included in the drainage district.

Q: What happens on the Day of Review of Apportionments?

A: This hearing revises and updates the assessment percentage for each property in the drainage district. Property owners can talk to drain staff about the assessment percentage for their property.

Q: How does this affect my property taxes?

A: Property owners can talk to drain staff about the assessment percentage for their property at the Day of Review of Apportionments or I can take your name, address, and phone number and have the drain staff return your call.

Q: What is my hearing date and time?

A: Refer to the notice you received in the mail for your specific date or you can visit our website at www.waynecounty.com/doe for more information. Drain staff will be available between 9AM and 5PM.
